The Obituary

Lorene Wright-Taylor was born youngest of two children in Milledewill, Georgia on Septemebr 4, 1942, to the late Louise Trawick-Thrope and Oscar Wright. She was promoted to glory on Monday, April 1, 2019.

Mother Taylor was united in Holy Matrimony to George Taylor on September 13, 1958. They were married for 53 years until the Lord called him home. They were blessed with five children. She was a loving and devoted wife and mother. She was an active member of the church. She loved to spend weekends on the fishing bank with her husband. Over the years she developed many extended family members who she loved a great deal.

Mother Taylor accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior at a young age. She joined and became a faithful member of Mays Chapel, now known as Faith Community Church, where she was formally president of the junior usher board, treasurer, cook in the kitchen, Sunday School teacher, and sat of the mothers board.

Preceding her in death is her son, George Taylor Jr., two grandchildren, two great grandchildren, brother-in-law, John Williams, and special friend, Elaine Green.

She leaves to cherish her memory: four children, Ms. Nadine Taylor, Ms. Debra Taylor-Payne, Delores Taylor, and Mr. Daniel (Andrea) Taylor; a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, great-great grandchildren, nieces and nephews; one sister, Sarah Williams of Victorville, California; sister-in-law, Mary (Junior) Turner of Oakland, California; special sisters in Christ, Brenda Hairston, Joyce Goings and Elizabeth Hairston; two God-children, Joy Goings and Jeremy Goings.

My Sister Reni Girl

My sister and I as children would fuss and fight as we grew up we learned to love and respect each other. my sister, Reni Girl was a loving and faithful wife, the best mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and great great grandmother. A true friend with a beautiful smile for everyone, but most of all she was a child of God. When God chose to pick her out of the garden of flowers He chose one of the best. Rest in peace my Reni Girl. may God bless and keep you always.

*Love,
Your sister, Sarah*
